Why don't we list our Emails? 1) You can look us up on <http://ku.edu>, and 2) WE DON'T WANT YOUR EMAILS! Come to class, come to office hours. We can't discuss your grades in emails, we can't answer substantive questions in emails. Please don't write and say, "I was late/sick/drunk/in Manhattan. Did I miss anything in class today?" We hate that! Of course you did, we had class! Use the discussion board in courseware.ku.edu to ask questions.

2. Grades: are based on multiple-choice exams (10%+20%+20%+40%=90%) and discussion section (10%). Course grades will be assigned as follows: 90-100% = A, 80-89.9% = B, 70-79.9% = C, 60-69.9% = D, 0-59.9% = F. We round up to assign grades for close cases.

3. Makeup exams. There will be makeup exams on the Wednesday evening 5pm of the week following the exam. (See Schedule). These will usually be in a short-answer format, not multiple-choice exams.

4. Classroom etiquette. Be on time. Don't leave before the class is over. No ridiculous immature behavior, including but not limited to: note-passing, tickling, kissing, punching, whispering, listening to portable stereos, reading newspapers, text messaging, playing computer games, etc. If you do these things, you will be asked to leave. And taunted as you go!

5. No Cheating. The University enforces a strict set of rules. Don't copy the work of others.

6. Attendance is vital. Do the readings, show up for lectures. If you miss discussion, check your GTA's schedule and attend a different section.

8. People with disabilities of any kind are encouraged to participate in the class to the fullest extent. The Academic Achievement & Access Center (AAAC) coordinates accommodations and services for all KU students. If you have a disability for which you wish to request accommodations and have not contacted the AAAC, please do so as soon as possible. Their office is located in 22 Strong Hall; their phone number is 785-864-4064 (V/TTY).

Information about their services can be found at <http://disability.ku.edu>. Please contact your professor privately in regard to your needs in this course.

9. Intellectual Property. University Governance advises you of the following. Course materials prepared by the instructor, including tests, lectures, notes, are the property of the instructor. Re-distribution without permission is prohibited. Note-taking services, whether commercial or not, are not legally entitled to redistribute course materials.
